

We've made it to the end of 2025—
Mostly thanks to Mom, we've managed to survive
So much has changed, so much to share
Our wacky little Jackie turned one this year!

Trips to Philly, NYC, Rhode Island, and more
Life with our angel is never a bore
PhD finished, Dad's back to med school
And if you ask Jackie, Dad is pretty cool

Ça plane pour moi was our song of the year
We're not quite sure how we ended up here
In the little blue house, no two days are the same
Our family of three is too wild to tame

We're sending you love & we wish you were near Merry Christmas to y'all, and Happy New Year!
